Docket No: LV-281-19
Case Filed:

OCT 25 2019

Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. No. 206 sets forth those costs recoverable by the prevailing party.

To The Defendant: The above named plaintiff(s) asks judgment against you for $ 9,500.00 together with costs upon the following claim (Civil fines must include citation of the statute or ordinance violated):

Negligence in loss of package containing irreplaceable legal and financial records. No attempt to recover the package once it was deemed lost. Negligent or intentional organizational policy and processes designed to obstruct individuals from obtaining information, filing a claim or requesting refund once a package is lost (i.e. no customer service number, no follow up, poorly designed and broken web site, no ability of customers or local mail staff to interact with lost mail tracking personnel, no feedback or review process). See attached talking points and related exhibits.

I, Scott Hodges verify that the facts set forth in this complaint are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief. This statement is made subject to the penalties of Section 4904 of the Crimes Code (18 PA. C.S. § 4904) related to unsworn falsification to authorities.

I certify that this filing complies with the provisions of the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania that require filing confidential information and documents differently than non-confidential information and documents.

(Signature of Plaintiff or Authorized Agent)

The plaintiff's attorney shall file an entry of appearance with the magisterial district court pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.M.D.J. 207.1

If you intend to enter a defense to this complaint, you should notify this office immediately at the above telephone number. You must appear at the hearing and present your defense. Unless you do, judgment may be entered against you by default.

If you have a claim against the plaintiff which is within the magisterial district judge jurisdiction and which you intend to assert at the hearing, you must file it on a complaint form at this office at least five days before the date set for the hearing.
